

Meet the OnePack Plan

The first employer pet insurance plan that works like other group benefits

Who We Are

PetPartners is an ensemble of seasoned industry experts who stripped away all the complexities that don't add real value to pet insurance. We discovered that there's no such thing as a "one size fits all" solution. So, we delivered solutions that fit just right. PetPartners is a part of the Independence Pet Group family of pet health products and services, serving millions of pet parents across North America.
